

Bubali Take Away is ready to serve you lunch or dinner

Conveniently located close to the Eagle Beach hotels and timeshare resorts, the cute, clean and cozy Bubali Take Away opened their doors on Monday evening, ready to provide an authentic “Taste of Aruba.” Mario Arends, Sr. acted as host for the his son, Mario, Jr. as Bubali Take Away is a family business, and mom Sonia and bother Brian were on hand to assist, as were friends and family to which them well in their new venture.

The shop is located at Bubali 93, just across from Cheng’s Market, and offers a take out manure of typical Aruban platters, plus a soup and special of the day. Prices range from 4.00 Arubian florins ($2.30) for hamburgers to 13.00 Arubian Florins ($7.60) for a full mixed grill platter. They are open every day from 11: 00 AM until 2:00 PM for lunch and from 5:30 until 9:30 PM for dinner. Sunday’s will feature and Aruban Style Barbecue. Orders can be placed by calling telephone 567-7111 to have your order ready for pick-up.

The family affair of the grand opening was highlighted by young cousins Nicole, Maria, Jerylaine, Veronica and Sheelah cutting the ribbon so everyone could enjoy some of the no-fat, no cholesterol frozen yoghurt they offer for dessert. THE NEWS extends congratulations and best wishes for success in their new business venture to the Arends family.